

Blenneman

- Also Known As St. John's Wort
- Origin Nonnative, invasive
- Habitat Pastures, meadows, roadsides, waste areas
- Life Cycle Perennial
- Flowering Time June to late September
- Management Pull or dig repeatedly; chemicals are available
- Noxious Weed List Nevada-YES; California-YES, C-rated

5 separate petals

Occasional tiny black dots at edges of petals

Flat-topped cymes

1 in

Transparent dots on leaves

- Height: 1 - 3+ ft
- Stems: erect with numerous rust-colored branches
- Branches: somewhat 2-ridged and woody at the base
- Leaves: elliptic to oblong, entire, opposite, sessile; not over 1 in long
- Flower color: yellow