

RUSH SKELETONWEED Chondrilla juncea CHJU

D.Tomaso

Also Known As	Skeleton weed
Origin	Nonnative, invasive
Habitat	Roadsides, rangelands, pastures, disturbed soils
Life Cycle	Perennial with extensive, deep root system
Flowering Time	Mid-July through frost
Relative Abundance	Infrequent
Management	Difficult to control without herbicides due to extensive deep root system
Noxious Weed List	Nevada A-rated; California A-rated

Nonnative Invasive

- Height: 1 - 4 ft
- Stems: rigid and wiry; highly branched; cut surfaces exude milky sap
- Leaves: upper, narrow and entire, inconspicuous; stems often lack leaves
- Growth form: bushy
- Flower color: yellow